

Financial Regulatory Lawyer

Promontory is seeking one or more legal professionals to join its compliance consulting practice. The professionals will assist in the review of compliance programs, the drafting of policies and procedures, preparation of other program enhancements, and forensic reviews into compliance lapses.

Candidates should have excellent legal training, a strong academic background, and 2 to 3 years of experience in a regulatory agency, financial institution, or financial services practice of a top law firm.

Several positions are available, including positions that require extensive travel and a more limited number of positions that do not, and which could be filled by individuals seeking part-time employment.

Competitive salary and benefits.

If interested, please call 202-394-1130 for more information.